Participation in the conference

Conference documents

The conference documents are available for consultation on the website on the parliamentary portal of the French Presidency of the Council of the European Union: www.parlue2022.fr

Documents will be handed out in person at the Salle des Conférences.

Speeches

When registering online, participants are requested to confirm if they will take the floor. Planned interventions shall be submitted in written form to: conf.migrations@senat.fr

Availability of rooms

Rooms will be made available to enable the holding of bilateral discussions or working meetings. In addition, a room equipped with PCs and printers will be made available to the delegations.

N.B. Delegations wishing to use the rooms assigned for bilateral discussions, can book them by May 13 2022 at the following address: conf.migrations@senat.fr

Recording of meetings

All meetings will be videorecorded and made available for streaming on the www.parlue2022.fr website. The minutes of the meetings will also be posted online on this website.

Information about personal data protection

Participants are deemed to consent to a non-exclusive and unlimited right of use of all their speeches and declarations as well as all images (photographs and videos) in which they appear during the conference. Deemed consent applies in particular to the transferable right to reproduce these speeches and contributions, to distribute and make them available to the public, including in a modified form, and to use them in any form or on any current or future medium.

Translation/interpretation

Simultaneous interpretation of the plenary sessions will be provided in French, English and German. Each delegation may request translation into another language, using its own interpreters and at its own expenses. Delegations wishing to do so are requested to make this known before April 27 2022. An interpreting booth will be provided for the interpreters.
